The Staroſt Podlachia has preſented the Baſſa of Chochin with ſome Hunting Dogs and a Silver Trumpet. The Staroſt of Bradſlow as Regimentaire of Ukrania, has now very well ſecured the Frontiers, and taken Priſoners 5 of the Chief Rebel Coſſacks, whom the Ottoman Porte had deſired to ranſom; offering on that purpoſe to make good all Damages done by the Coſſacks during the Winter; but this has been refuſed, and theſe Rebels are ſtill in cloſe Confinement. The Crown-General ſet out yeſterday from hence for Lemberg, by way of Wolczin.

Vienna, May 17. One of the Expreſſes whom the Court had ſent to France, is lately returned with Diſpatches, which makes us apprehend, that the Differences relating to the Affairs of Italy are not ſo near being ended as we had flattered ourſelves. And indeed we begin again to talk more warmly of War than ever, and the Court has ſent divers Orders tending to a Rupture, as well in Italy as the Empire. General Count Neyperg, is, by the Emperor, appointed Commander in Chief in the Duchy of Luxembourg; and it is taken for granted that the Veldt-Marſhal Count Mercy will, in caſe of a Rupture, have the general Command of the Army in Italy. Prince Eugene has written a very ample Letter to the King of Sardinia, on the preſent State of Affairs; and that Prince being preparing for a Journey, it is believed that he is going to the Court of Turin. It is aſſured that the Great Duke of Tuſcany has reſolved, not only to receive Imperial Garriſons into Leghorn, and other of his Towns, but that his Royal Highneſs has alſo offered to advance to his Imperial Majeſty two Millions of Crowns. His Excellency Earl Waldegrave is preparing to ſet out for London. From Turkey they aſſure us, that the Troubles of Egypt are not yet over: The Troops of Zulfukar Bey, who commands at Grand Cairo ſince the Baſha was depoſed, having rallied after the Battle they loſt in July, againſt Cherkeſs Mehemet Bey and Soliman Bey, Chiefs of the Rebels, engaged them again ſome time after, within a few Leagues of Cairo, and gained a ſignal Victory, Soliman Bey being killed upon the ſpot, with a great Number of his Followers. Cherkeſs Bey eſcaped by flight, and ſoon got another Army together, by the aſſiſtance of the Arabs. This Army is now in the neighbourhood of Cairo, where the Soldiers commit all manner of Diſorders.

Granada, May 5. We learn from Cadiz, that the Galleons having taken in their Lading, will ſail towards the End of this Month for Weſt India, from whence we have received advice, that Capt. Giuſtiniani, who was cruiſing upon thoſe Coaſts, with 2 Men of War, had taken 2 foreign Ships and ſome other Veſſels, who were carrying on a clandeſtine Trade to the Caracces.

Madrid, May 9. The Preparations for War are continued throughout the Kingdom; and there are actually 13 Ships of War and Frigates at Sea, who have Orders to chaſe the Corſairs of Barbary from the Spaniſh Seas, and afterwards to ſail for Barcelona. From Alicante the 26th paſt, we hear, that in that Port and at Malaga they had freighted ſeveral Ships of foreign Nations, to be employed in the Expedition to Italy; and it is added, that they hire thoſe of all Nations, except the Engliſh. They write from Barcelona, that his Grace of Wharton, who had been ſome time under Confinement in the Fort of Montjoui, was diſcharged the 25th paſt; and that on the 27th ditto, 4 Men of War ſailed thence for Majorca, to take the Troops on board which are in that Iſland, which are to be relieved by 2 Battallions, which the King's Gallies are to carry thither from Alſaches.

We learn from Lombardy, that 6 Imperial Battalions with their Companies of Grenadiers, were marching from the Kingdom of Naples. It is adviſed from Toulon and Marſeille, that if an Accommodation with the Emperor does not take Place, 12000 French are to imbark on board the Men of War, Gallies and Tranſports, which lie ready in thoſe Ports, for Italy.

Frankfort, May 24. As the Emperor will ſend the greateſt Part of his Troops to Italy, in caſe of a Rupture, it is aſſured, that the Army to be formed on the Rhine will be only compoſed of the Auxiliary Troops of the ſeveral Princes and States of the Empire, who have already aſſured his Imperial Majeſty, that they will ſend thither a Number ſufficient to keep the Empire in ſafety. The Letters from Vienna confirm, that the Emperor perſiſts in the Reſolution he has taken, not to depart a tittle from the Quadruple Alliance.

Berlin, May 23. This forenoon, between 11 and 12, the Queen was happily brought to Bed of a Prince; the good News whereof was preſently notified to the Public, by a general Diſcharge of the Artillery upon our Ramparts. Of 10 young Perſons, cut for the Stone this Year in the Hopital de la Charite, 5 the old way, and 5 the new, the 5 firſt died, and the other 5 were cured in 10 Days. They write from Burgundy, that a Highwayman, in a Prieſt's Habit, overtook on the Road a Woman who had been at Dijon, to receive Money; and finding by her Diſcourſe, that to ſecure the ſame, ſhe had ſewed it in the Tail of her Gown, he took his Opportunity, and threatened to murder her if ſhe did not deliver. The Woman not having either Knife or Sizars about her, the Adventurer lent her his Dagger to rip it out; but ſhe watched the critical Minute, and while he was attentively ſtooping to help her rip the Gown, ſhe ſheathed the Weapon in his Breaſt, and laid him ſprauling.

The much talked of Expedition to Italy, goes on ſo very ſlowly, that we are of Opinion here, that it will not be put in Execution this Year; by which Time, it is probable that the Expence the Emperor will be at, and the fatiguing of his Troops, by their long Marches may bring him to Reaſon.
